We have never discussed or agreed on not hiring additional call centre resources. If that's the case why are we going ahead with Arcis? I do not remember you raising a query on it.

When I discussed Analytics Resource with you yesterday you didn't say any such thing.

There have been many vendors whose services we have generally utilised with approval notes barring instances where the expenditure is below Rs 10,000. The bills have never been rejected.

Madam,

Analytics resource service has always been utilized with approval notes only, since we are hiring additional manpower.

Originally we had agreed that we are hiring the Call centre girls in house, so no payment would be required to ANALYTICS RESOURCE

As discussed yesterday, these are invoices amounting to below Rs 10,000. Hence, we do not have approval note for this.
